Project Overview

Persatuan Pendidikan Masyarakat Selangor (PPMS) proposes to establish the EmpowerEd Community Learning Centre in Bandar Baru Bangi to provide free education and vocational training for underprivileged youth aged 13–18. The centre will offer classes in mathematics, English, coding, and sewing, alongside community events to foster engagement. The project aims to empower 200 students annually, aligning with Malaysia’s Shared Prosperity Vision 2030.

Objectives

- 1. Provide free education to 200 underprivileged youth in Bandar Baru Bangi.
- 2. Equip students with skills for employment through vocational training.
- 3. Host community bonding events to promote social cohesion.

Budget Breakdown

Item	Cost (RM)	Description
Classroom Renovation	50,000	Refurbish 4 classrooms with furniture
Educational Materials	30,000	Textbooks, computers, sewing machines

Staff Salaries	40,000	5 teachers for 6 months
Community Events	20,000	4 events with food and activities
Miscellaneous Supplies	10,000	Stationery, utilities, promotional items
Total	150,000

Implementation Plan

- Month 1: Renovate classrooms and procure materials.
- Month 2: Hire teachers and finalize curriculum.
- Month 3–6: Conduct classes and host one community event monthly.
- Proof of Work: Submit photos of renovated classrooms, class attendance records, and event reports (PDFs/images) to CharityChain's platform.

Community Events

To build community spirit, we will host four events:

1. Cultural Day: Showcase traditional Malaysian arts with food stalls (budget: RM 5,000).
2. Career Fair: Connect students with local businesses (budget: RM 4,000).
3. Charity Gala: Fundraising dinner with entertainment (budget: RM 6,000).
4. Youth Festival: Sports and music activities (budget: RM 5,000).

Expected Impact

- 200 students gain access to education and skills training.
- 80% of graduates secure jobs or pursue further studies.
- Strengthened community ties through inclusive events.
